

Matchless Moments

Vasanthi Vasudev

Tell me, what happens,
What does happen
When the seeking sun
Meets the crescent moon...
When Jasmine pearls
Soak themselves in dewy night.
When ceaseless waves
Gently kiss waiting shores.
When magical rainbows
Pierce fluffy clouds....

When the mountain air
Intoxicates sober woodlands,
When gusty torrents
Create torrents
In serene seas,
When all ice melts,
When new waters
Rush over
Old banks.....

When flames fly off candles...
When castles soar into skies...
When eyes sparkle in unknown light...
When lips curl in obtuse smiles...
When aching hands reach out...
When hurricanes storm the heart...
When You
Meet Me?
